FRAUNCES TAVERN

54 Pearl St., New York, NY 10004

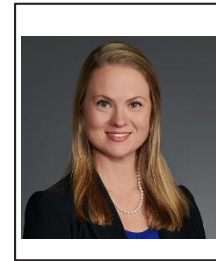

(212) 968-1776

Learn how economic indicator executives follow and prove strategies for leveraging economic forecasts at the company level.

Lauren Saidel-Baker of ITR Economics will cover a wide variety of topics including short and long term global economic forecasts, regional economic updates, an outlook on inflation, and the relationship of political events and economic growth.

Fraunces Tavern® - Established in 1762, New York’s oldest & most historic bar and restaurant, Fraunces Tavern® is a National Landmark that once served as a watering hole for many of the Founding Fathers. This building is most famous as the site where, on December 4, 1783, George Washington gathered a group of his officers to thank them for their service and bid them an emotional farewell before returning home.
